

Cyber Crimes, Information Security and Computer Ethics

26 June 2026

Task

Learned about different types of cyber crimes such as phishing, identity theft, malware attacks and unauthorized access. Studied the principles of information security and responsible use of computer systems. Discussed computer ethics, privacy, legal responsibilities and the importance of ethical behaviour while working with digital resources.

Daily Training Diary