

Web Security Fundamentals and Introduction to Burp Suite

17 July 2026

Task

Studied basic web application security concepts and common weaknesses in web applications. Introduced Burp Suite as a tool for authorized web security testing. Learned the role of HTTP requests and responses and how a proxy can be used to inspect traffic. Discussed responsible testing practices and the importance of using controlled environments.

Daily Training Diary