

Burp Suite: Intercepting Requests and Response Analysis

18 July 2026

Task

Practiced using Burp Suite to understand HTTP request and response structures in a controlled application. Examined headers, parameters and response information. Learned how interception can help identify security issues during authorized testing. Reviewed how web requests should be analyzed without modifying or attacking systems without permission.

Daily Training Diary