

Social Engineering and Phishing Attacks

02 July 2026

Task

Studied social engineering techniques used to manipulate users into revealing information or performing unsafe actions. Learned about phishing emails, fake websites and deceptive messages. Examined common indicators of phishing and discussed methods for verifying suspicious communications. Practiced identifying social engineering scenarios from a security perspective.

Daily Training Diary