

Baiting, Pretexting and Social Engineering Prevention

03 July 2026

Task

Learned about baiting, pretexting and other manipulation techniques used in social engineering attacks. Studied how attackers create convincing situations to obtain sensitive information. Discussed awareness, verification procedures and safe handling of unknown files or requests. Reviewed preventive measures for reducing human-related security risks.

Daily Training Diary