

Introduction to Intrusion Detection and Snort

13 July 2026

Task

Studied the concept of intrusion detection systems and the difference between network-based and host-based monitoring. Introduced Snort as a network intrusion detection and prevention tool. Learned how traffic can be monitored for suspicious patterns and how alerts are generated. Discussed the role of signatures in detecting known attack behaviour.

Daily Training Diary